

Ash Wednesday: 17th February 2021

This short act of worship has been prepared for you to use whilst we are unable to use Methodist Church premises. We invite you to spend a few moments with God, knowing that other people are sharing this act of worship with you. You may find it helpful to find a pebble or stone to use during our prayers. Similarly see if you still have a palm cross from last year, or any cross (even crossed kitchen knives would do) place the cross where you can see it during this time of worship. A more penitential liturgy can be found in the Worship Book p141

Opening Prayer

God of truth and holiness,
as I settle down to worship
on this first day of Lent, may I know your holiness and be enlightened by your Spirit,
so that I may in truth join with all the saints
in praise and penitence. Amen

Hymn: 507 O for a heart to praise my God

O for a heart to praise my God,
a heart from sin set free,
a heart that always feels thy blood
so freely spilt for me;

A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
my great Redeemer's throne,
where only Christ is heard to speak,
where Jesus reigns alone;

A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
believing, true, and clean;
which neither life nor death can part
from him that dwells within;

A heart in every thought renewed,
and full of love divine;
perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
a copy, Lord, of thine!

Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
come quickly from above,
write thy new name upon my heart,
thy new, best name of love.

Charles Wesley (1707-1788)

Let us pray together....

Almighty God, creator of all and lover of all you have made,
we come to worship you.

Expand our ideas of holiness, and remind us that we are made in your image, holy and good.

Drive from our hearts all that is mean and petty,
all that is not good.

On this the first day of Lent we come with the matters that trouble our conscience: things we have done or said that did not reflect your goodness in Jesus.

Things we could have done but chose not to. Acts of generosity we selfishly refused to do, or to receive.

Lord Jesus, Friend of sinners, wash me clean.

Holy Spirit, burn away the dross in my life.

Heavenly Father, assure me not only of your loving welcome for repentant prodigals,
but also of your strength to help me through this Lent.

Speak to me now through your Holy Word, that by the Living Word I may be challenged and encouraged, in Jesus my Saviour. Amen

Time to Reflect

Ash Wednesday can be an uncomfortable time in worship. Our readings bring us up short – like the questions on our “Methodist Way of Life” commitment cards. Sometimes we are called by God to go back to basics. So some questions for us to reflect on from our readings:

- When have I “pointed the finger”?
- When do I “quarrel and fight”?
- How do I deceive myself and serve my own interest?
- When have I “hidden from other people’s needs”?

This Lent what is the fast that the Lord requires of me? Might it be a fast

- From consumerism?
- From planet-damaging activities?
- From self-obsession?

Where is my treasure? What does my heart return to morning by morning? Night by night? Do I speak of good, or of evil?

And lest we forget to hope - a quote from the alternative OT reading

“Return to the Lord, your God, for God is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.”(Joel 2:13)

Take a time to sit quietly, holding your stone and looking on the cross.

Remember God’s promise in Ezekiel 36:26 “I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh.”

A time of prayer

God of the whole world, hear me as I offer my prayers with the whole Church and guide my prayers that through my words and by my deeds your will may be done.

I pray with Methodists around the Connexion using our Prayer Handbook.

On day 17 we pray with the Church of North India and the Church of South India. Thank you for their ecumenical witness to the unity of us all in Christ. May they be a rebuke to any desire to assert my denomination over any other.

We pray for the Lincolnshire District, and I pray for my own District and Circuit.

I thank you for the fellowship I have experienced through my local Methodist Church, and I pray now for people known to me through that church, especially .....

Through my words and by my deeds may your will be done.

I pray for the world around me, especially for the people I have seen on my TV screen.

Holding my stone, I remember those who would throw stones at others, metaphorical and real. You remind me that true religion is both a thing of the heart, between each person and you, but also a thing of community.

I pray for those who build community – neighbours who call on me, or who I can phone and support. I pray too for those who struggle with financial issues, especially during this pandemic. Through my words and by my deeds may your will be done.

And as I look on my cross, I remember those who are carrying the burden of suffering today. You knew unfair suffering on your cross Lord Jesus, so you can help us bear our burdens. Help me today with my burden, be it loneliness, illness or something else. Speak to me of your love that overcomes evil, of your hope that gives endurance. Through my words and by my deeds may your will be done.

And I remember those who have died, especially those known to me. I name them now..... May the hope of resurrection comfort those who mourn, and the circle of fellowship warm those in the grip of grief, even as my hand has warmed this stone.

Lord in your mercy: Hear my prayer. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father .....

Hymn: Listen to Beauty for brokenness

Beauty for brokenness,
hope for despair,
Lord, in your suffering world
this is our prayer.
Bread for the children,
justice, joy, peace,
sunrise to sunset,
your kingdom increase!

Shelter for fragile lives,
cures for their ills,
work for all people,
trade for their skills;
land for the dispossessed,
rights for the weak,
voices to plead the cause
of those who can't speak.

God of the poor,
friend of the weak,
give us compassion we pray:
melt our cold hearts,

let tears fall like rain;
come, change our love
from a spark to a flame.

Refuge from cruel wars,
havens from fear,
cities for sanctuary,
freedoms to share.
Peace to the killing-fields,
scorched earth to green,
Christ for the bitterness,
his cross for the pain.

Rest for the ravaged earth,
oceans and streams
plundered and poisoned --
our future, our dreams.
Lord, end our madness,
carelessness, greed;
make us content with
the things that we need.

Refrain

Lighten our darkness,
breathe on this flame
until your justice burns
brightly again;
until the nations
learn of your ways,
seek your salvation
and bring you their praise.

Refrain

Graham Kendrick (b. 1950)

A prayer of blessing

May the Lord of the dance,
with you in the somber days of Lent,
bless your Lenten discipline with grace and bring you resurrection and hope in the strange blessings of Gethsemane and Calvary,
in God's Holy Name, Amen
